⁷ We have updated the description of Paul Hastings' connections with Angelo, Gordon & Co., L.P., which were previously disclosed on the First Supplemental Declaration, in light of new engagements since the filing of the Third Supplemental Declaration.
